Dear Harold:

25X1A9a

I forward herewith by [redacted] your personal copies of the Proceedings of the Second Conference on Intelligence Methods and of the supplement thereto. I am sending a copy of the Proceedings to [redacted] by this same channel and am having twenty-seven additional copies of each document delivered to [redacted] here in Washington in order that you may have extras to use as you see fit.

I appreciated very much your kind letter of 30 November last after your return. We are, I must admit, a little proud that we were able to carry through most of our arrangements concurrently with the Cuba "flap," and we are most happy that you found your visit both pleasant and profitable.

Sincerely yours,

Ray S. Cline
Deputy Director (Intelligence)
